The Old: "It has been a privilege to work with this particular group of students in designing this year's yearbook, Tiger 2014. I have been blessed beyond measure and I am confident that we have created a yearbook you will be able to look at for years to come with fond memories of your years here at Bay High. As I depart these halls to take on new opportunities, I will also look back with delight on the memories we have all shared. I wish you all the best and would like to take this moment to thank each of you for making my time here at Bay High the most rewarding of my career in education." #TigersForever

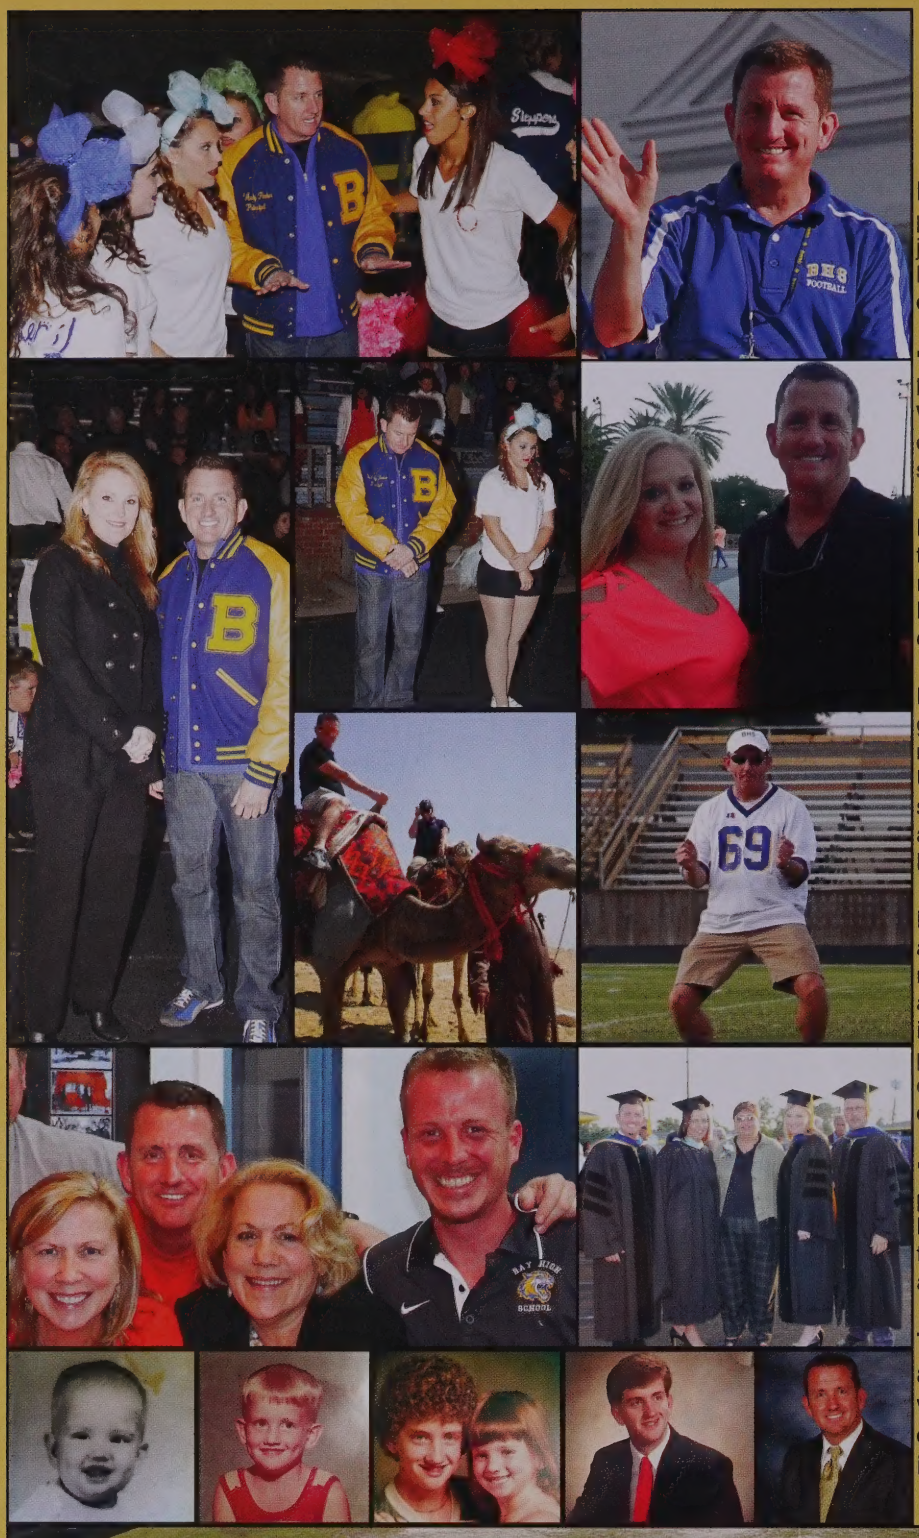
~Mr. Jeremy Grubbs, Journalism Advisor - First Term

The New: " It has been an honor to preceed Mr. Grubbs in working with such an intriguing group of students in completing this yearbook. Working with this yearbook staff has been a privelage as well as a learning experience for the students and myself. It has been a very interesting semester and has definitely made my first year at Bay High very memorable."

~Ms. Samantha Hull, Journalism Advisor - Second Term

"Our staff has worked diligently to create a yearbook that captures all the memories that are within these halls. From the old memories to the new, and the ones yet to come, as you flip through these pages we hope you can see the memories of something old, something new, something gold, and something blue."

~Miriam Keith, Editor-in-Chief



In Dedication To Dr. Andy Parker

Dr. Andy Parker, our beloved Bay High principal for the past five years, retired at the end of October. He has joined a non-profit educational consulting firm in Louisiana that specializes in school leadership development.

"It's no surprise to any of us who know Dr. Parker that he has been sought after by other educational groups. We've been fortunate to have a person as talented, dedicated and energetic as he is for the time that we did," said Superintendent Dr. Rebecca Ladner.

Dr. Parker became principal of Bay High in 2008, when the school and the community were in the middle of recovering from the devastating effects of Hurricane Katrina. He not only guided the school through this difficult time, but led it to new levels of success.

During his tenure, scholarship money awarded to graduating seniors jumped from $350,000 to nearly $5 million, and Bay High received national recognition from U.S. News and World Report and Jostens Learning. The school earned seven state championships in athletics and was first in the state for highest completion, and lowest drop out rate.

Dr. Parker cites his experience at Bay High as the accomplishment in his career in education of which he is most proud: "Our work in increasing student achievement led us to so many other important tasks, like instituting Challenge Day to combat bullying and to promote the acceptance of diversity. That program, in one day, made such an impact on all of us and completely changed the school."

"For the past five years, most of my focus, personally and professionally, has been the students at this school. I know their names, their grades, their triumphs, and their tragedies. Nearly every decision I've made has had them at its core, and I know I will miss them most."

Thank you, Dr. Parker for all that you have done at Bay High. You are one of a kind, and while we wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors, know that you will be greatly missed in Tiger Country.

You can lead a horse to water, but when you teach him to fish, don't look him in the mouth, or he might bite you. Horses don't like it when you mess with their mouths, and isn't that the greatest gift of all?

- Joseph Williams, Math

My memory of the class of 2014 will be of their laughter. Hold on to that jovial spirit and may all your decisions be guided by love and not by hate.

- Liz Cain, Spanish

"It is good to love many things, for therein lies true strength, and whosever loves much performs much, and can accomplish much, and what is done in love is well done." ~ Vincent van Gogh

- Heather Rumfelt, Art

You each represent an amazing and enthusiastic and talented group of young people who have touched my heart and my life. I feel so very blessed each day to have had the opportunity to watch you all grow into the young adults that you are today. I wish each of you much success, happiness, and love as you embark on your endeavors past high school.

- Dr. Amy Coyne, Principal

I will remember the Class of 2014 fondly. You are a great class and I wish you well in your future endeavors. I've enjoyed being a part of your lives!! Best wishes and much love!

- Ann Lathrop, Curriculum Coordinator

The Class of 2014 will very likely go down as the favorite I had the privilege to teach. It has been a fun ride and the bonds formed will never be erased from our memories. I wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors, and remember - work hard in all that you do, but most importantly, have fun! I find it doubtful that anyone ever said with their last breath, "I wish I had less fun." Godspeed to each of you.

- Jeremy Grubbs, English

It seems like only yesterday that the Class of 2014 entered our halls as little more than babies. Now they will be leaving us as resolute and impressive young men and women. They have so much to offer the world, and I trust they can see the limitless possibilities that the world has to offer them.

- Kellie Smith, English

As you begin the next sequel to your life, I wish you well, and I'm so thankful that I was able to be a part of your high school experience. Carpe Diem!

- Dr. Andy Parker, Former Principal

"You won't lag behind, because you'll have the speed. You'll pass the whole gang, and you'll soon take the lead. Wherever you fly, you'll be the best of the best. Wherever you go, you will top the rest." ~ Dr. Seuss

You all are a remarkable group of young adults. I have been privileged to have you as students.

- Amy Richardson, English

They have made me laugh, made me cry, made me lose it... They are a lovely bunch of coconuts and I will miss them.

- Dottie Sjostrom, History

"Neither a wise man nor a brave man lies down on the tracks of history to wait for the train of the future to run over him." ~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

- Reese Marlow, JROTC

Let the wind blow through your hair while you still have some. :)

- Tarah Herbert, Digital Media

"Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world." ~ Nelson Mandela

- Samantha Barlow, Counselor

A gigantic "thank-you" to the class of 2014 for making me feel less like the new teacher in school and more like the teacher that you were happy to see once again. Remember, always follow your heart but keep your mind as a close companion.

- Renee Hamm, English

"Focusing your life soley on making a buck shows a certain poverty of ambition. It asks too little of yourself, because it's only when you hitch your wagon to something larger than yourself that you realize your true potential." ~ President Barack Obama

Mr. Trevor Adam was born in Gulfport, Mississippi. He graduated from Bay High School in 2006. Before he taught at Bay High, he was a Computer G.I.S Analyst. Mr. Adam currently teaches Special Ed. He was born and raised in Bay Saint Louis and is a proud graduate of Bay High School, graduating the year of Hurricane Katrina.

~Trevor Adam

Mrs. Angela Fillippou was born in McComb, Mississippi. She graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2007. Before she came to Bay High, she taught Biology at McComb High School before and then moved to Maryland. Mrs. Fillippou currently teaches Biology. She stated that she is happy to be back in her home state and teaching here at Bay High School. Some interesting facts most students do not know about Mrs. Fillippou are that she is a Saints and Nascar fanatic, she loves to draw and paint, and she is terrified of spiders.

"Believe in yourself and all that you are. Know that there is something inside you greater than any obstacle."
~Christian D. Larson

Mrs. Leanne Garcia was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina. She graduated from St. John High School in 2007. Before Mrs. Garcia became a teacher at Bay High, she was a Massage Therapist. She is currently the assistant for a life skills class. She played soccer for twelve years, she's jumped into the Aegean Sea off of a cave in the Greek Islands, and when she lived in Korea, every where she went people would rub her head because they believed blonde hair to be a sign of good luck.

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. Your'e on your own, and you know what you know. And you are the one who will decide where you go."
~Dr. Seuss

Mrs. Renee Hamm was born in Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. She graduated from Longwood College, Virginia, in 1978 and the University of Southern Mississippi in 1982. Before Mrs. Hamm began teaching at Bay High, she taught for twenty years at St. Stanislaus College. She currently teaches Senior English.

"Never underestimate your ability to achieve things you want in life."
~Mrs. Hamm

Mr. Taylor LaFontaine, despite telling his students he was born in Sydney, Australia, was born in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. He graduated from St. Stanislaus High School in 1992, and from Duke University in 2005. Before we experienced the privilege of having Mr. LaFontaine at our school, he was an extreme couponer while teaching and coaching at SSC and then Pass High School. Mr. LaFontaine currently teaches Personal Development, he has been sky diving three times, he can hold his breath for one minute, he was 2006 Time Magazine's Person of the Year, and he once hit a homerun off of Gregg Maddox.

"When life throws you a curveball, close your shoulder and hit the other way."
~Mr. LaFontaine

Mrs. Heather Rumfelt was born in Gulfport, Mississippi. She graduated from Ocean Springs High School in 1996. Before Mrs. Rumfelt came to Bay High, she was a professional artist and has taught high school for the past seven years. She currently teaches Art I, II, III, IV, and Art Appreciation.

"Always look at yourself as a survivor and never a victim."
~Heather Rumfelt

Mrs. Samantha Hull was born in North Conway, New Hampshire. She graduated from Bay High School in 2004, MGCCC in 2008, and the University of Southern Mississippi in 2011. Before becoming a Bay High Tiger Mrs. Hull worked at Wal-Mart from 2008-2013, as well as teaching at the alternative school in Pearl River county in 2012-2013. She currently teaches Algebra II and Geometry. A few tidbits about Mrs Hull you may not know is that she is adopted and has wanted to be a teacher since she was in the third grade.

"Speak with good purpose."
~The Third Key of Excellence

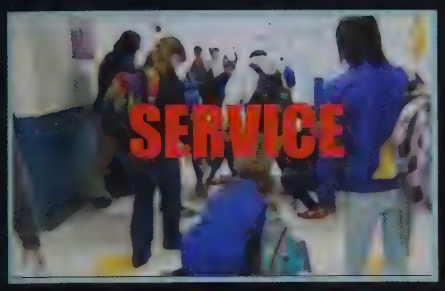
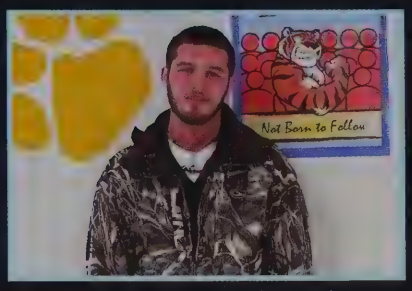
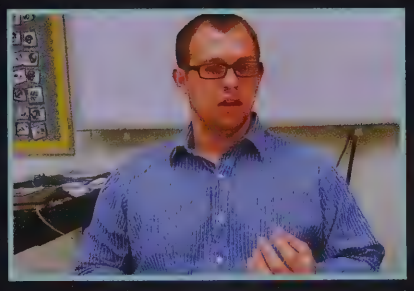
Presley Favre's Challenge Day Video Wins 1st

Challenge Day is an event that comes to our school every year and helps break down adversity between students. This year Presley Favre created a video that was submitted into a national contest. Unsurprisingly, the video won first and our school was awarded $4,800 to help fund this year's Challenge Day. Congratulations Presley! http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yRs-5mBOtig







ROAR

This year our school entered the national "Roar with Katy Perry Contest" sponsored by Good Morning America. Cassady Compretta became an instant celebrity when she was asked to sing Katy's song, "Roar". Our cinematographer was Presley Favre, and the exectutive producer was Miriam Keith. The video received local support and to date has over 56,000 views on YouTube. Miriam, Cassady, Mr. Grubbs, and Presley are shown below after receiving acknowledgement from the BWSD Board of Trustees for their efforts. Mrs. Tarah Herbert was also instrumental in the production. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GF468BizsGc

Welcome to Bay High, William Hutto!

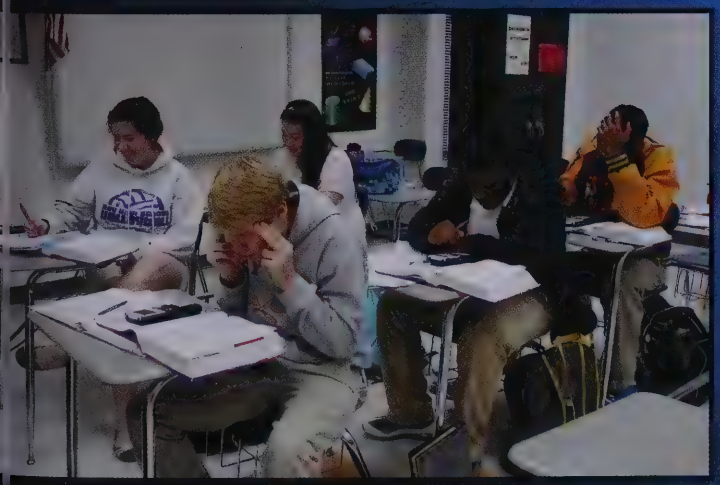
Fall Memories

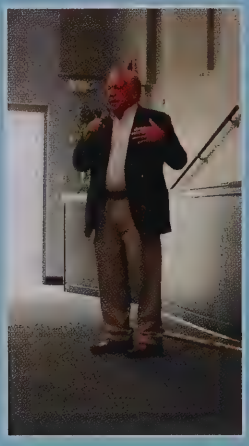
We'll never forget Mr. Grubbs' Accelerated English III class protesting high tuition rates, or our beautiful girls in yearbook on the bridge above. Grant Adam and Patrick Cuevas made pretty great business managers for the yearbook as well. The drumline will be forever practicing on the field, and Interact officers will always remain friends. Trae Bordelon & Madonna Fontenot looked like two peas in a pod, and then the Boys of Fall supported breast cancer awareness. It was bittersweet on Senior Night, as seen by Edward Harris and his mom. We all admired the Steppers for their makeup skills when they dressed as zombies for the halftime shows. The district-wide pep rally brought many smiles and left us all with plenty of Tiger Spirit for the rest of the year! The memories we made this fall will be unforgettable.

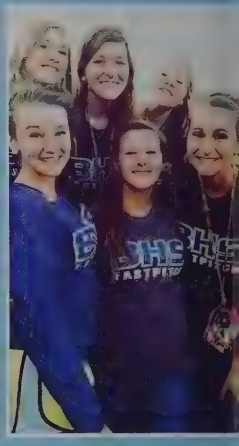
WINTER MEMORIES

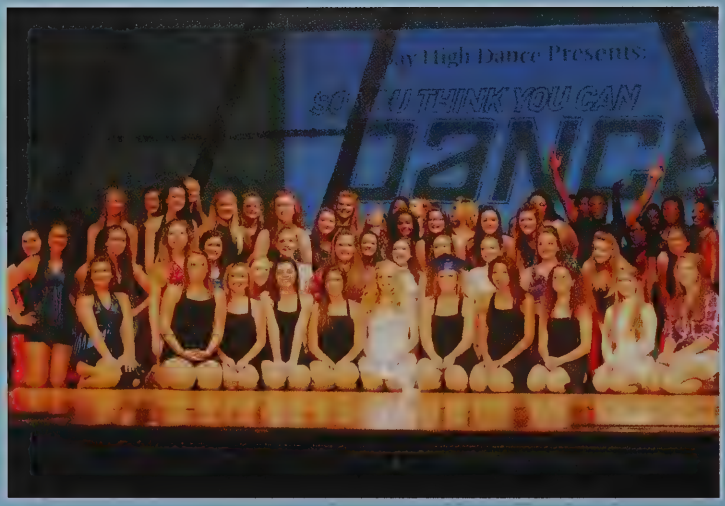
As the tempreture dropped, first semester came to a close. Dara Lymuel & Miriam Keith celebrated meeting the first yearbook deadline, while Megan Magee & Katherine Kyriakoudes concentrated on a lab for physics. To keep warm, the seniors wore their hoodies proudly saying "Kiss our class goodbye". Mrs. Anderson made sure that seniors were submitting college applications and applying for scholarships. To keep warm at the Powder Puff Girls' football game, some sophomore boys decided to give tumbling a try. And with the end of the semester, of course, comes final exams. As shown below, Mr. Williams' pre-calculus class is studying hard.



Memories of Spring







FUN IN THE SUN

While most students will be out enjoying sun this summer, many of our students have other plans. Hunter, Joe, Essie and Brennan will be attending MS State University. Tyce and Gabi will be attending Mississippi Governor's School. Claire, Presley, and Katherine will spend a month attending the Trent Lott Program at Ole Miss. Meanwhile, Jordan and Lauren will be enjoying their time on the beach while others choose to dive into the water, and some just like to relax on a raft. Merritt and Rosie will never stop posing for the camera.

White beaches and tan skin await, bringing on memories never to be forgotten.

Duncan Cornfoot

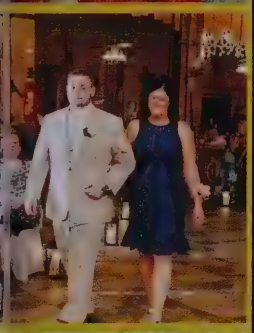
Dunc – We couldn't be more proud of you! You've had a dream since you were a little boy and have had the courage in spite of the doubters and opposition to focus, work hard and make each step toward that dream so far become reality. Not only are we proud of your baseball achievements but of who you are as a young man as well. You're kind and compassionate with a true heart for others. We have watched you teach, encourage and inspire the younger kids and those around you to work toward excellence here at home and at times like when you worked with the orphans in the Dominican Republic; the joy on your face – and theirs - says it all. You're touching the lives of so many, Dunc! Keep dreaming and enjoy the journey! We love you – Dad, Mom and Baylie



Duncan, we can't even begin to express how proud we are of you. You are becoming a remarkable young man. Hard working, strong, diligent, etc. You have what it takes to go far, "For with God nothing will be impossible" Luke 1:37. We can't wait to see where The Lord takes you in life!
Love, Paul and Danna

Duncan, You're graduating from high school. Wow. One of my fondest memories of you is our Nerf basketball battles. We would play for what seemed like hours. I never thought that one day you would actually start growing up and becoming an exceptional young man. I am proud of you. You've since become a little brother that we can't thank God enough for. You may never understand how much I needed you and your family when we first met. How much I needed to play H-O-R-S-E on your Nerf hoop. Or how the field trip to Krispy Kreme was the best field trip ever. You taught me how to enjoy the moment. All of the memories and stories we have shared compel us to create more. We look forward to always being in your corner and being the best pillar of support we can be for you.
Best, David & Teresa

ictoria,

ly first-born and only daughter, words can not express how proud I am of you! You have blossomed from baby to a beautiful young woman. There has been a few bumps along the way, but I wouldn't trade them or anything. I have learned so much from you. You are the epitome of who I wish I was at your age: kind, oving, caring, compassionate, and selfless are just a few words I would use to describe you. I know you nay not have understood why I was so persistent with you as you were growing up, but as I would always ay, I wanted you to be so much better than me. As you get ready to start this next chapter in your life, emember to keep God first and make the right choices and decisions. If you do this, you will be just fine.

I love you always,

Mom

Anna-Marie Orange

"Your first day of kindergarten you hopped out of my car telling me I would be okay. I cried that whole day, all I could see was this day. All I kept thinking was that this was it. You were going to school and would no longer need me. That you would then go to middle school, and high school and then you would have prom and graduation, then you would no longer be mommy's monkey. Now you are a young lady that we are so proud of and can't wait to see the woman you will become."

This being my last year at Bay High, I have spent a large majority of my time remembering the fun times I have had here and also the lessons I have learned. The memories I have made here will surely stay with me for the rest of my life, and the lessons learned will help me navigate the uncertain future.

Though much in our lives is uncertain, one thing remains constant. No matter where we go, whether wilingly or not, a piece of this high school will always be with us in the form of glossy pages. Nothing special, right? Wrong. All teenagers like to deny the fact that we will most likely forget everything that happened in high school. Just stop it, we won't always be invincible! Eventually, time and new experiences will take its toll. Old friends will be replaced by new ones, and we will eventually fade into our teachers' memories as new students arrive every year. In the words of Lauren Toomey, this is utterly depressing. And truth be told, it is.

Going away to college next year, I am going to miss the family that I have found here at Bay High. Although we complain a lot, Bay High is truly gifted with an incredible faculty. Sure, they are pretty serious rule followers, but they all also have pretty enormous personalities. If you have ever had Mr. Williams, you hopefully have learned how to recognize and deal with sarcasm a little better. (If you haven't had him as teacher, take his class. He's the math wizard.) I will always be waiting for the day when I'll flip on Jeopardy and see Mr. Molpus, Mrs. Hamm, and Mrs. Pate competing. They know absolutely everything, you name it! Don't even get me started on how awesome our students are! I mean I know I'm the best, but ya'll are cool too! I hear it repeatedly from new students on how outgoing and friendly our students are. I know that sounds like cheesy typical counselor stuff, but it's true. I mean think about walking around this school as a freshman and how welcomed you felt. In college classes next year I won't know what to do without having Patrick Ponder in a class with his great storytelling skills. You, sir, truly have a gift.

Lessons can be taken from anywhere in life, but the ones with the most impact involve personal revelations. With that being said, here's some advice that will make your high school experience that much memorable! 1) Smile at everybody. Everyday. It's proven that smiling makes you happier, and it makes other people happy! 2) Stop complaining about school work, it's not going away. Deal with it. 3) GET INVOLVED IN SCHOOL. Through clubs or sports, it doesn't matter! (You'll have your picture in the yearbook a lot and it helps with scholarships!) 4) Don't be scared to speak up about things you don't agree with. People won't always agree, but you'll feel better about yourself. 5) All the drama doesn't matter.

Don't worry, this novel is ending because I could go on and on. So, why am I saying all of these things? As you flip through this yearbook, I hope you get a sense of how great high school is. Cherish it. Soon, it will all be gone and all you will have left is this yearbook reminding you of how cool you thought you looked. In these pages (literally or not) holds all of the memories each of you has made here and I hope that my staff and I have captured and preserved them for you in a way that the old memories will become gold and in hopes that your new ones will always have an underlying of Bay High's royal blue.

Blue & Gold Forever,
Miriam Keith, Editor-in-Chief
